Saskatchewan Youth Parliament Senatorship Application

What is the Saskatchewan Youth Parliament Senate?

Saskatchewan Youth Parliament (SYP) is non-partisan organization of young people that meet to discuss relevant political and social issues of concern. Some of the members of Saskatchewan Youth Parliament go on to become actual legislators. Other obtain notoriety through a variety of activities including journalism, law and authorship. The Senate is made up of alumni of SYP who are continuing to contribute to society in some way.

Membership in the Saskatchewan Youth Parliament Senate

Applicants to the Senate must have been members of Saskatchewan Youth Parliament at the some point in the history of the organization. This includes when SYP was known as the TUXIS Youth Parliament of Saskatchewan and was affiliated with the United Church, as well as when it was known as The Saskatchewan Older Boys Youth Parliament. If you have attended any session of these organizations then you are eligible to be a senator. Please fill out the attached information package and mail it to the address shown below or email to speaker@saskatchewanyouthparliament.com if you would like to become a Senator.

Senatorships will be awarded at the Christmas session of the year of the application. This ceremony takes place in the Legislature Buildings in Regina over the Christmas break. Inductees to the SYP Senate are invited to attend the ceremony, where they will be presented with their certificate and commemorative pin. The Senator's information will be recorded in the Senate book for posterity. Although it is encouraged that Senators attend the bestowing of the Senatorships, this is not required.

What does the Senate Cost?

The one-time fee to become a Saskatchewan Youth Parliament Senator is $25. Any other donations to the organization are welcome.
